Afterlife Fashion

Prada & Valentino Sunglasses

At the electrifying Afterlife rave, attendees donned avant-garde ensembles that epitomized the emo essence of the melodic house music scene. As the pulsating beats echoed through the sold-out venue, fashion became a form of self-expression, merging with the soulful melodies. Italian and European DJs dominated the stage, exuding style in meticulously curated outfits and sunglasses featuring label brands like PRADA and Valentino. Their fashion choices set the tone for the night, blending sophistication with an edgy allure.

The crowd was a spectacle of metallic hues and bold statements, reflecting the avant-garde spirit of the Afterlife rave. Supermodel knots ponytails adorned the heads of glamorous girls, adding an element of effortless chic to their looks. Meanwhile, boys sported undercuts or shaved heads, embracing a sleek and minimalist aesthetic. Metallic accents shimmered under the neon lights, symbolizing a new era of fashion on the scene. As attendees danced to the hypnotic rhythms, they embodied a collective awakening of consciousness, transcending boundaries through music and style. Follow @afterlife_ofc for a glimpse into this transformative experience where fashion and melody converge in perfect harmony.

BUGATTI VAPES

In the heart of Miami's pulsating nightlife scene, the AfterLife rave ignited with an electrifying fusion of music, style, and innovation. Among the myriad of sensations, one partnership shone brightly: DJ Twilo and Bugatti Vapes, merging their prowess to redefine luxury vaping.

At the helm of this collaboration was DJ Twilo, renowned for their boundary-pushing beats and unapologetic style. Teaming up with Bugatti Vapes, a name synonymous with opulence and precision engineering, their venture was nothing short of revolutionary.

"Why try to fit in, when you are custom-made?" echoed the ethos of the night. With the mantra resonating through the crowd, attendees were treated to an unparalleled vaping experience. Bugatti's flagship creation, the B9000, emerged as the undisputed star—a device not merely for vaping but an emblem of sophistication and individuality.

Crafted with meticulous attention to detail, the B9000 exudes an aura of exclusivity. Its sleek design commands attention, while its cutting-edge features set it leagues apart from the competition.

BUGATTI VAPES

As DJ Twilo took the stage, armed with three distinct versions of the B9000, the crowd braced for an unforgettable journey.

Yet, it wasn't just about the device—it was about the flavors that tantalized the senses. Bugatti Vapes spared no expense in curating a selection of 14 exquisite cartridges, each promising a flavorful odyssey. From the luscious sweetness of berries to the indulgent richness of desserts, and even the invigorating chill of mint, the B9000 catered to every palate.

RESISTANCE AFTER PARTY

Can you believe it? I'm still riding the wave of last night's epic Resistance rave, and the weekend's already over! Time flies when you're lost in the music, right? ☆🌟🍷💚 talk about a techno paradise! Last night was a straight-up testament to the everlasting magic of the genre. @kolschofficial and @resistance didn't just spin tracks; they took us through soundscapes that kept our hearts pounding. It was like being lost in a musical dream that I never wanted to wake up from.

can we take a moment to appreciate the global rave fam that came together at the Ultra after-party? The energy was off the charts!!

here's the cherry on top: I've snagged some exclusive sets from last night's madness, and I'll be dropping them on my radio show this Friday! So clear your schedules and get ready to relive the madness with me! 🌙🌟🌟 loving all the VJ design & the dancers were amazing! So many new ideas so much inspirations!! Who agrees?
